Turbulent Scenes Enacted at the Sunday Meeting.

TOUGHS AND THEIR BLACKTHOONS

and Others at Milkenny.

London, Dec. 15 .- The wave of reaction against Mr. Parnell is becoming more pronou ced. The influence of the priests is rapidly making itself felt. In the churches everywhere, but especially in Kilkenny, Sunday the clergy openly urged upon their hearers the duty of following the advice of the bishops and striking a blow at immorality in high places by voting against Parnell.

The bishop of Cloyne has requested the members of the league in his diocese to withdraw from the present organization controlled by Mr. Parnell and to form a reorganized league free from alliance with the discredited

The Scenes at the Tipperary meeting Sunday are regarded as a pre-lude to a campaign of violence that may reach a degree little short of civil war before the question at issue is finally de-cided by the Irish people. A gang of forty roughs captured the meeting temporarily and carried everything for Parnell. But the contingents of country people from a radius of twenty miles

Mr. Healey's statement to the effect that he and Biggar at one time contem-plated strangling the Parne:1-O'Shea connection was the subject of severe ani-madversion by John O'Connor, one of Cashier. Parnell's supporters. He said to a correspondent that Biggar especially had no right to reflect upon the private afairs of Parnell, having been of a woman, by whom he had a child, to which child and mother he be-queathed nearly all his property, and none to the national cause. Mr. O'Con-ner said these facts did not derogate from Biggar's service to his country, and he did not believe that Biggar had ever joined in any reflection upon Par-$75,000.00

The salaried members of parliament opposed to Mr. Parnell are already in serious pecuniary embarrassment. It is reported that two of them have applied to and received temporary assistance from Mr. Gladstone. In an interview William Redmond scouted the idea that Mr. Parnell was mentally unbalanced. "The same has been said, he remarked, "of Cæsar, Napoleon and every great man in the moments of history when their extraordinary efforts were too great for the comprehension of ordinary critics."

Mrs. O'Shea's Petticoats for a Banner. KILKENSY,, Dec. 15 .- Mesers. Healy, M. J. Kenny, Tanner and Davitt addressed meetings in support of Sir John Pope Hennessy. Healy declared that if Parnell was allowed to return to the leadership he would stump Ireland with a new banner made of Mrs. O'Shea's petticots. He said that Parnell had side of the said that t put Capt. O'shea in parliament in ex-change for his wife's honor. There than to deny that I sent the telewas a stormy Nationalist convention at Newry. A mass meeting was held at Youghal, over which Canon Kellar presided. A resolution denouncing Parnell was adopted. At Waterford on Saturday a huge procession with 400 torch-bearers awaited Parnell, but he failed to come. The mayor and other municipal officers. The mayor and other municipal officers addressed the crowd from the town hall, and resolutions endorsing Parnell were adopted.

There was a big Parnell meeting at Limerick Sunday. John Redmond was the principal speaker.

Is Parnell Weakening? LONDON, Dec. 15.-Mr. Parnell's speeches are thought by impartial critics to be losing in power, or at least becoming monotonous. He is plainly repeating a few stock arguments; perhaps denunciations would be the more correct word. His physical weakness ness is becoming more apparent also, and it is evident that the strain is beginning to be too severe for his endurance. His followers are considerably worried over this fact and they are also irritated because of his vacillation and refusal to adhere to any plan of campaign in the usual political sense. He at first declined, then accepted, and followers have already been wagered upon the result of the mill. finally declined again the invitations to speak at Waterford and Limerick, where great meetings are being arranged. His remaining at Kilkenny is supposed to be due to the belief that the contest there is to be a close one, TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 15.-The mass meeting called by the county farmers' alliance association was largely attended. Several hundred merchants and professional men took part in the general discussion of the most practical means of driving Nelson, Morris & Co.'s dressed meat out of this market. The final decision was to boycott it. The farmers held that since the Chicago dressed meat had come into the city the local beef market had been destroyed; that Nelson, Morris & Co. were selling at a loss to accomplish their purpose. ers' alliance association was largely atat a loss to accomplish their purpose, and then, when they were secure in it, they would raise the price.

Topaka, Kas., Dec. 15 .- 8. W. Chase chairman of the People's party state central committee, and Gen. John H. Rice of Fort Scott, met in this city for the purpose of issuing a call for a national conference, to be held in Cincinnati Feb. 23, to form a national union

Gen. Rice, acting upon the instructions of his associates at the Ocala convention, asked Mr. Chase to issue the call officially. This he declined to do, for the reason that at the time set for the conference the Kansas legislature will be in session, and he and a majority of the Kansas leaders will be unable to attend

Gen. Rice was compelled to issue the call on his own authority. The call is signed by prominent men in favor of the movement from Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Virginia, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, North Dakota, Taxas and Tennessee.

Slavin said that he had just received an acceptance of his conditions with regard to the Corbett fight from the New Orleans club. In the meantime he had accepted an offer from the California Athletic club, through Thompson, to fight Corbett for £2,000, with a side bet of £500. In any event he could not leave England in time to fight in February, but would be in Catifornia in March. Judging from Slavin's conversation he seems to pre-

Gen. Carr to Move on the Indians. RAPID CITY, S. D., Dec. 15. - [Special.] A battery of Hotchkiss guns has been immediately to Gen. Carr's command at the mouth of Rapid creek. A number of Indians, straggling parties, have been seen going north. Dr. McGillycnddy says that Kicking Bear and Shert Bull will never surrender without a fight. That Kicking Bear is one of the worst who in 1876 foully murdered Acting Agent Applegate of the Red Clond agency, and it is expected the main body of the hostiles will attempt to follow him.

Gen, Carr has orders to intercept and disarm them at all hazards. It is expected that a collision will occur be-tween the Indians and the troops in the vicinity of the mouth of Spring or Rapid creek, as the troops are gradually hemming in the hostites.

V. T. McGillycnddy, surgeon general of the state milipia, has been ordered to the front and will join Col. Day's patrol. John R. Brennan has tendered his apprices to Gan Carr and will act as his services to Gen. Carr and will act as guide and scout for the troops.
